

The FCC should not implement any proposals that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. Indiana's law has been very effective. We are getting no solicitation phone calls to our home since this law was adopted, so please don't lessen it with an FCC proposal that would weaken the Indiana law. Thank you.